

Software catalogue

Software distributed by UNIL's IT Center (Ci) is available for every UNIL employee (with a UNIL contract). Delivered in its latest version defined as stable by the Ci, the software can be installed on all computers inventoried at UNIL.

Installation

Basic software and utilities are installed by default on every FBM equipment. For the installation of additional software, please contact the FBM IT support.

Software offered by UNIL

UNIL software are free or paid software distributed by the Central IT Services (Ci).

- Software distributed by the Ci
- Other free software and special offers
- User and installation documentation

FBM software

FBM software are free or paid software provided on request by the FBM IT Service.

Name	Editor	OS	Description	Information
SnapGene viewer	SnapGene	Win/Mac	Molecular biology (free)
GraphPad Prism	GraphPad	Win/Mac	Statistical analysis (paid)	FBM documentation
LimeSurvey	LimeSurvey	Win/Mac	Online survey (free)	FBM documentation
BioRender	BioRender	Win/Mac	Online scientific figures library (paid)	FBM documentation

SWITCH applications

SWITCH applications are IT services provided by SWITCH to the swiss academic community. The use of those services is free for all people with a UNIL or CHUV account.

Name	Editor	OS	Description	Information
SWITCHfilesender	SWITCH	Win/Mac	Send large file by e-mail	FBM documentation

Free software

Free software is software distributed under terms that allow users to run the software for any purpose, and sometimes without a financial contribution. Most of the free software the most commonly used are installed by default on every FBM equipment.

You can go to alternativeTo.net to find equivalent software, free or paying, to commercial products.